Read the paragraph. Find the text and answer the questions.

Once you were little. What could you do? When I was three I learned to talk. I could speak and say short sentences. I could dig and sing a song. I could eat at the table. I learned to run and ride. I could go fast. What couldn't you do when you were three? I couldn't swim and read. I couldn't drive a car and fly a kite. Now, I am older I can do many things. I can read a book and write short stories. I can skip and play table tennis.
