

Proverbs and their definitions: 1

Match the proverbs with the correct definition.

Where there's a will there's a way

*A bad experience or a horrifying incident may scar
a person's attitude or thinking for a lifetime.*

*A burnt child dreads
fire*

When a person really wants to do something, they will find a way of doing it.

First come, first served

If you say discretion is the better part of valor, you mean that avoiding a unpleasant situation is sometimes the most sensible thing to do.

A friend in need is a friend indeed

A friend who helps when one is in a lot of trouble is a real friend.

Discretion is the better part of valor

The first in line will be seen to first.
