

Proverbs and their definitions: 3

Match the proverbs with the correct definition.

A penny saved is a penny gained

To do something that is right, profitable, or a little late is still better than not doing it at all.

*A rolling stone gathers
no moss*

A person who never stays in one place or who often changes his job will not succeed in life.

Better late than never

Those who make loud threats seldom carry them out.

Barking dogs seldom bite

One will either enjoy or suffer the consequences of his earlier actions or inactions.

As you sow, so you shall reap

By being thrifty one will be able to save up.
